January Writing Ideas

* Many people set goals at the beginning of the year. Make your own resolution. Share your resolution and tell why you think it is a good goal to have. Write about the steps you will take to help you reach your goal.

* Every snowflake is unique, just like every person is unique. Share what makes you unique.

* Winter is a great time for building snowmen, sledding and ice skating. Choose a favorite winter activity and write about it.

* Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was born on January 15th. Research to learn five facts about him. Write a paragraph sharing what you learned.

* January is National Soup Month. Create your own recipe for a new soup. Share the recipe and write a how to paragraph describing how it should be made.

* Compare and contrast winter and summer. Include ways the seasons are alike and ways they are different. You should have at least two paragraphs when you finish.

* Write a poem about winter.
